Eric Claus nominated Courtney stating, "She is CMS' ray of sunshine! She consistently brings an energy and joy into the building with her each and every day that leaves you no option but to take part in it with her. On top of that, she is an absolute work horse! As a new employee, she eagerly and quickly learned all of our systems, new and old. In addition to learning them, she works every day to improve upon them. She has an incredible head on her shoulders and has no issues taking charge when the situation calls for it, but with a level of respect and care that has earned her full trust amongst building staff and administration alike.
